This wasthe name of the little cottage where my great-grandparents lived--so The language is more stuffy than the Secret Garden, but it was interesting to see all of the parallels. I wish grown-up ladies, who mean to be kind to their friends' daughters, would try to remember the awkwardness of it, and not increase a naturally uncomfortable self-consciousness by personal remarks which might disturb the composure of older, prettier, and better-dressed people. Melany is currently reading it Oct 16, I was kneeling on a chair and examining the sketch one morning, when my great-g the bye, I know that I've heard that the shadows on the snow in Canada are really blue--bright blue.
