Because the Catholic Church through murder and persecution became the only Church in existence for hundreds of years known as the dark ages. Here is the first one, and you must think carefully to give me the correct answer: Thomas Aquinas taught that the Decalogue is an expression of natural law which binds all men, and therefore the Sabbath commandment is a moral requirement along with the other nine. The other was written in stone and was eternal and for. For example, the observance of Sunday. The Epistle of Barnabas, AD: Justin Martyr who attended worship on the first day, [19] wrote about the cessation of Hebrew Sabbath observance and stated that the Sabbath was enjoined as a temporary sign to Israel to teach it of human sinfulness Gal. Ethiopia and the Red Sea: Paul was hungry and no doubt so were those who were listening.
