He also advocates learning about the Palestinian Nakba and Israeli independence in the school. Abunimah doesn't get bogged down as I so often do in discussions of collective psychology or history or overmuch geopolitical analysis--straight to the point that partition isn't going to work because the Jewish and Arab populations are so intermixed at this point. Jan 04, Yazeed rated it it was amazing. Quotes from One Country: Ali Abunimah proposes an important addition to the... This book was exactly what I wanted in a book about Palestine. He argues for a one-state solution based on reconciliation like in South Africa instead of ethnically-based land claims that inevitably make two-state partition agreements impossible. Quote from the book: What is comparable in this comparison surely is the mutual... is equally unacceptable for an Israeli to invoke his belief in an ancient covenant between God and Abraham to justify bulldozing the home and seizing the land of a Palestinian farmer.
