It is still under warranty. But who wants to read through all that to find out whether your vehicle qualifies as a lemon? We figured that was just normal for the transmission that was in it. Highly upsets. One of the last things that anybody thinks about when driving a shiny new car off a dealer's lot is that their new pride and joy just might have a defect that will cause endless havoc. The valve sensor was replaced on the first visit. March 24th, at it leaked terribly the first time and has been in to be fixed several times to the DMV.
