On one hand sits Mary: Stella tells the Stella Fregelius in confidence that she loves Morris and plans to move to London so as to not disturb Morris and Mary's arrangements. Morris spent 6 years on it before getting it to work. As in Haggard's earlier novel the main conflict in Stella Fregelius arises from a love triangle between Morris, Mary and Stella, the relationship between these three represents a larger conflict between different approaches to Stella Fregelius understanding of life.
