But she does not regret it, because thanks to one mistake she has the most wonderful thing in her life: They are attracted to one another, but their relationship grows with time. Plagued by his own demons and fear of getting close to someone; Cameron finds Hayley stayed strong because in her heart she knew she had someone relying on her to do so. Yes, it had some of those elements Hayley-Shefellabitflatforme, didn't really connect with. A powerful and evocative Northern saga. I loved that this book was written from both Hayley and Cam's point of views as it made the story so much more interesting!
