But at times misguided. A good example is the Smithsonian, when the National Museum of American History wanted to mount an exhibition on slavery, it found it did not have any objects that described slavery. I don't think so with this book! The inclusion of this history sparked both shock and awe among the geek-o-sphere, many of who were introduced to this real-life story now interwoven with their favorite super-hero for the first time. Esther Jones was the real Betty Boop! Yet at the same time, Black History Month has varied interpretations. Brazil was also the last country to ban slavery in
