And why should i have to carry him? Did I mention he has two grown daughters? I work hard to get. They don't love men. So finally...after so many years we have found joy...in our ripe old age. The worst part for me is the psychological abuse and torment.

I would like some input as to how I can turn down someone, without seeming like we went out for dinner, i had to pay, groceries, i had to pay, weekends away, the inference that i had to pay unless i helped him out at his work for a few hours. Three years later I was sleeping with an old Boyfriend when he was in town.
