In my school days I remember "Dog in the playground" and "Emma Hackett's Newsbook" being performed in a class assembly. The rhyme on every other line creates a very musical and rhythmic verse.

For children now, some of the references might not make sense, so I'm not sure. No trivia or quizzes. Great for Literacy and Drama as well as AI. I have been reading the poems from this book over and over from my own childhood as I enjoyed them so much from a young age.

Aug 25, Alice rated it as amazing. Through rhyming couplets and short puns, the book is about school-based poems, which incorporate a rhythmic sense. The poems can also be used to help inspire the children to also create their own poems.
