This book had me hooked from the start. My fondness for all things Jane Austen endears this time period to me.

I try to write too many stories. I most enjoy reading. As Harry confronts the train wreck, I was really impressed with Ms. This may be the most boring Regency I've ever read, and that's with a kidnapping, secret magic, and a plot to take the throne.

His earlier books have been compared favourably with the work of Harlan Coben. This turn-of-the-century coming-of-age tale, year-old Jack Parker—accompanied by a pair of eccentric bounty hunters—tracks the outlaws who have killed his parents and abducted his sister. I would highly recommend Bewitching Season to historical fiction and fantasy fans!
