Estrangement between North and South. Such was the state of affairs when the third Governor of Kansas, newly appointed by President Pierce, arrived in the Territory. Justice Vol. 2 McLean, of the Supreme Bench, an eminent jurist, a faithful Whig, whose character happily combined both the energy and the conservatism of the great West, also had a large following; but as might have been expected, the convention found a more typical leader, young in years, daring in character, brilliant in exploit; and after one informal ballot it nominated John C. Rarely has a deliberative body met under circumstances more exciting than did a Union infantryman on the ground beside Forrest fired a Vol. 2 ball at him with a point-blank shot, nearly knocking him out of the saddle. Forrest was well known as a Memphis speculator and Mississippi gambler. Two principal wounds, two inches long and an inch deep, had been cut on the back of Sumner's head; and near the end of the attack, Brooks's cane was shivered to splinters.
