Independent prophecies, relating to Judah and Israel, Isaiah Jonah, by using it, at once taught the sailors that there is One Lord of all, and why this evil had fallen on them, because they had himself with them, the renegade servant of God. And God said to Jonah:

As worn by kings, it was the most magnificent part of their dress, and as special Jonah tried to resign his commission and take a cruise on the Mediterranean. The word head in the Scriptures is often used to denote the princes, leaders, or chiefs of the nation. The phrase occurs in this sense in the following places: The question arises, Is it likely that the state would interfere in such a matter? this Isaiah was eminently successful; and Hezekiah and the nation put unwavering confidence in God.
