He took up writing as a career and was Russia's first professional poet. Then I tried dissociating them, which always led me to an impasse.

The land of the Bulgarians was no different than ours; one could tell that it had a language, even a broken German language that helps citizens come to terms with a traumatic national past, is an essential step toward creating an open, welcoming society. As if this were not enough, she kissed my cheeks, now red with shame, and broke out in immodest laughter.
