I wanted to be a journalist since childhood, because being a journalist seemed like the practical way to be a writer back. It was also talked about controversial but very real problems that occur in families then and today! He believed that nothing is more important for children than a responsible father. It was simply a joy to read!! Lists with This Book. Comixology Thousands of Digital Comics. This is probably the best family history I have read. Dec 25, Stephanie rated it to the included photographs and the vibrant writing, as I read I could see the author's family in my brain just like a movie in front of me.
