Please review your cart. Baermann, who was imprisoned at Salaspils from December to August reported that in this period 15, persons passed through the camp, and almost all of them were killed, only survived.

The first prisoners were initially housed in a former communal building. Sha As a harrowing testimony about this we possess the post card of Oscar Hoffmann from Cologne, in which he in the morning of 24 July after arriving in Minsk, immediately before being murdered at Trostinez, requested being sent a certificate from home: Given that each convoy carried a thousand men, that makes a total of 55, to 87, Jews exterminated in the Salaspils camp. The transports carried 6, to 7, deportees. Thus some 26, Reich Jews were sent to Minsk during the above mentioned period. The mention of Vienna and the lacking mention of Frankfurt are perhaps more serious, and points to a somewhat faulty memory.
