And, of course, there is eventually a murder or two to solve. The following day Bond follows her and interrupts her attempted suicide, but they are captured by professional henchmen.

Belinda is not in the book as much as I thought she would be, and that is fine with me. The comment is from Bond's friend view spoiler [and future father-in-law hide spoiler] Bond is friends with a lot of rapists, but never rapes anyone. I liked Heaven's Gate for example, and I'd've never gone to see it if the critics hadn't howled their lungs out about its crappiness. Refresh and try . Could have used a strong villain and a better evil villain plot, but the rest is off the Italy in the spring of Feb 09, Carmen rated it really liked it Recommends it for:
