There is a huge difference when fathers are present verses when they are forced by the courts to only have 4 days a month to spend time with their children. What three conditions must prevail if your child is to have the best chance of doing well psychologically, socially, academically and physically?

Farrellwantstotellus. As a father myself, this book with its descriptions of fathers being jailed merely on the accusation of child abuse by vindictive wives, was more frightening than any Stephen King novel.
