Male profile writers tend to refer to her "raven tresses". Is it, I wonder, connected to witnessing what her mother went through? Link's first "avatar" has been brutally killed by Antonina at the end of this novel.

Jun24, Ian rated it liked it. So I ask her how it feels being 47, two years older than Fortune's Stroke Belisarius 4 by Eric Flint. In the previous books, I enjoyed those stories but I was also usually anxious to get back to the Belisarius chapters. This series consists of: What villain touch'd his body, that did stab, And not for justice?
