I worked other job throughout town and when I was thirteen I had finally saved. The stairs were lit by torchlight and several small paintings were hung on the walls. I mean, I might have been getting quicker, but I knew that without the proper form I wasn't going to get any better. Normally when we get mail if ever it's always addressed to our mom, but this one was clearly addressed to me. Just In All Stories: We eventually reached the top of the staircase and walked through another set of wooden doors which led into a long corridor.
