Powell uses his own medical protocol that he says is unique in his region: Last year, independent reviewers issued more than 100 decisions, which troubles Keith More, an attorney for injured workers in Southern California. But the agency continued to fight, sending the dispute to an independent medical reviewer, who sided with the insurer.

He suggests that a system be implemented that allows different managers to use your policy for accuracy of the claim. Managing workers' compensation claims requires employers to coordinate workers' compensation policies and practices with other statutes that affect the employer's obligations to the injured worker.
